

Authors,

Before submitting your article please be sure to fully blind the document by removing authorship and any affiliated institutions.

Please answer the following two questions and send this document along with your manuscript:

1. Is this article primarily (check the one that best applies):

_____ Activity-based (describes a unique lesson for other teachers or faculty to use)

_____ Research-based (provides important data and findings)

_____ Solution-focused (offer solutions to current challenges in science education)

2. Is this article aligned with an upcoming journal theme? If so which one?
